Report Overview

We produce the Pillar 3 Regulatory Disclosures quarterly to update market participants regarding risk-based capital and risk exposures as required under the U.S. Basel III rules. This report provides information on our capital structure, risk exposures, risk assessment processes, RWA and overall capital adequacy, including information on the methodologies used to calculate RWA. This report is unaudited and should be read in conjunction with our 2025 Form 10-K and our December 31, 2025 FR Y-9C. Appendix 1 of this report contains references to specific sections of our 2025 Form 10-K to facilitate location of applicable information.

This report may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any statement that does not describe historical or current facts is a forward-looking statement, as discussed further in Appendix 2 of this report.

Scope of Application

CFG is a “standardized approach” and “AOCL opt-out” reporting institution under the U.S. Basel III Standardized framework. On July 27, 2023, the FRB, FDIC, and OCC issued a proposal to implement the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision’s finalization of the post-crisis bank regulatory capital reforms, commonly referred to as Basel III “Endgame”. For more information on the Basel III “Endgame” refer to “Regulation and Supervision” in Item 1 of our 2025 Form 10-K.

Our basis for consolidation used for regulatory financial statement reporting purposes is the same as the basis used for our financial statements prepared under GAAP. Refer to Note 1 of our 2025 Form 10-K for more information on the basis for consolidation for financial reporting purposes.

Restrictions on transfers between CFG and CBNA

CFG is a financial holding company and a BHC, regulated and supervised by the FRB. The OCC is the primary regulator and supervisor for CBNA. Applicable statutes and regulations that may pertain either to CFG, CBNA, and all entities as affiliates may restrict transfers of funds and capital between these entities.

Sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and FRB Regulation W are the primary restrictors of lending, borrowing, and otherwise transacting business between affiliates. Refer to “Business - Regulation and Supervision - Transactions with Affiliates and Insiders” in Item 1 of our 2025 Form 10-K for a discussion of these regulations. Restrictions on the payment of dividends and other capital distributions weigh most heavily on CBNA. The FRB expects a BHC to act as a “source of strength” to each individual subsidiary bank it owns by providing capital and liquidity as needed. Consistent with this view, bank regulators ensure that a bank does not return capital to the BHC in a manner that would undermine its overall “safety and soundness.” Therefore, CBNA is subject to specific qualitative and quantitative tests and examinations that may restrict it from paying dividends or otherwise returning capital to the Parent Company. For more information, refer to “Business - Regulation and Supervision” in Item 1 of our 2025 Form 10-K for an overview of the general controls and restrictions imposed on distributions of capital by CBNA and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Capital” in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K for details of CBNA’s status versus its applicable regulatory minimums.

CITIZENS FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.

December 31, 2025 Pillar 3 Regulatory Disclosures

CFG and CBNA are subject to capital adequacy and liquidity standards. If CFG or CBNA fail to meet these standards, it could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and operations. Refer to “Risk Factors - Risks Related to Regulations Governing Our Industry” in Item 1A of our 2025 Form 10-K.

RISK GOVERNANCE

We are committed to maintaining a strong, integrated, and proactive approach to the management of all risks to which we are exposed in pursuit of our business objectives. A key aspect of our Board’s responsibility as the main decision-making body is setting our risk appetite to ensure that the level of risk that we are willing to accept in the attainment of our strategic business and financial objectives is clearly understood.

To enable our Board to carry out its objectives, it has delegated authority for risk management activities, as well as governance and oversight of those activities, to a number of Board and executive management level risk committees. The Executive Risk Committee, chaired by the Chief Risk Officer, is responsible for oversight of risk across the enterprise and actively considers our inherent material risks, analyzes our overall risk profile, and seeks confirmation that the risks are being appropriately identified, assessed, and mitigated. Reporting to the Executive Risk Committee are the following committees covering specific areas of risk: Compliance and Operational Risk, Model Risk, Credit Policy, Asset Liability, Business Initiatives Review, and Conduct and Ethics.

Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Risk Governance” in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K for additional information on our risk governance practices.

CAPITAL STRUCTURE AND ADEQUACY

Capital Structure

We manage capital to ensure consistency with all applicable regulations and statutes, as well as with Board-approved internal policies established to ensure that the quantity and quality of current and projected capital will be adequate in relation to the risks that we assume across all lines of business. Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Capital” in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K for additional information. As of December 31, 2025, our regulatory capital instruments consisted of common equity that qualifies as CET1 capital, preferred stock that qualifies as additional tier 1 capital, and subordinated debt that qualifies as tier 2 capital. Table 1 below presents our regulatory capital instruments for the period ended December 31, 2025.

Our regulatory adjustments and deductions from CET1 capital are presented in Table 2 below and include goodwill and intangible assets (excluding MSRs) net of associated deferred tax liabilities.

As an “AOCI opt-out” institution, we are not required to recognize in regulatory capital the impacts of net unrealized gains and losses included within AOCI for debt securities that are available for sale or held to maturity, accumulated net gains and losses on cash flow hedges and certain defined benefit pension plan assets.

As of December 31, 2025, CET1 capital represented 77% of our total regulatory capital. Table 2 below presents our regulatory capital composition for the period ended December 31, 2025.

Capital Adequacy Process

Our assessment of capital adequacy begins with our Board-approved risk appetite and risk management framework. This framework provides for the identification, measurement, and management of material risks. For more information on our capital adequacy risk appetite and risk management framework, refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Capital” in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K.

As a Category IV firm, we are subject to biennial supervisory stress testing and are exempt from company-run stress testing and related disclosure requirements. The FRB supervises Category IV firms on an ongoing basis, including evaluation of the capital adequacy and capital planning processes during off-cycle years. Annually, the FRB requires us to submit a capital plan approved by our Board of Directors or one of its committees. Refer to the related discussion in the “Stress Capital Buffer” section of this report.

We develop a capital plan and conduct routine capital management activities in compliance with internal limits and operating targets that we establish for each regulatory capital ratio. The intent of these limits and targets is to meet both regulatory and market expectations, while also ensuring an efficient return to shareholders. We set these internal limits and targets to comply with the U.S. Basel III minimums, which include applicable buffer requirements. Refer to the related discussion in the “Stress Capital Buffer” section of this report.

Regulations relating to capital planning, regulatory reporting, stress testing, and capital buffer requirements applicable to firms like us are presently subject to rulemaking and potential further guidance and interpretation by the applicable federal regulators. We will continue to evaluate the impact of these and any other regulatory changes, including their potential resultant changes in our regulatory and compliance costs.

Table 3 below presents the U.S. Basel III Standardized capital ratios for CFG and CBNA as of December 31, 2025. All ratios remained well above the U.S. Basel III minimums.

Stress Capital Buffer

We are subject to the firm-specific risk sensitive Stress Capital Buffer (“SCB”). The FRB determines the SCB based on the projected losses under the supervisory severely adverse scenario of each firm subject to CCAR plus four quarters of planned common stock dividends, subject to a floor of 2.5%. Under the FRB’s capital requirements, we must maintain capital ratios above the sum of the regulatory minimum and SCB requirement to avoid restrictions on capital distributions and discretionary bonus payments. The FRB utilizes the supervisory stress test to determine our SCB, which is re-calibrated with each biennial supervisory stress test and updated annually to reflect our planned common stock dividends. As an institution subject to Category IV standards, we are subject to biennial supervisory stress testing in even-numbered years. Our SCB associated with the 2024 supervisory stress test was 4.5%, effective through September 30, 2025. In August 2025, the FRB provided us with our updated SCB requirement, which remains at 4.5% and was initially effective from October 1, 2025 to September 30, 2026. However, in February 2026, the SCB effective date was moved from October 1, 2026 to October 1, 2027 because the FRB extended the notification deadlines while its enhanced transparency proposal and related stress test model changes remain under public comment and will not be finalized before the 2026 supervisory stress test, resulting in our SCB remaining in place until October 1, 2028, pending other regulatory actions.

Based on our current SCB, the effective minimum risk-based capital requirements applicable to us are:

- 9.0% CET1 capital to RWA (minimum 4.5% plus 4.5% SCB);
- 10.5% Tier 1 capital (CET1 plus Additional Tier 1 capital) to RWA (minimum 6.0% plus 4.5% SCB); and
- 12.5% Total capital (Tier 1 capital plus Tier 2 capital) to RWA (minimum 8.0% plus 4.5% SCB).

As of December 31, 2025, the lowest of our three risk-based capital ratios less applicable minimum was 5.8%, well above our SCB of 4.5%. As a result, we are not subject to payout ratio limitations on our capital distributions or certain discretionary bonus payments. Eligible retained income⁽¹⁾ at December 31, 2025 was $458 million, consisting of the average of net income over the preceding four quarters.

Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Risk Management - Credit Risk” in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K for more information on credit risk governance.

Our loan and lease credit related accounting policies are presented in Note 4 of our 2025 Form 10-K.

As of December 31, 2025, U.S. Treasuries and mortgage-backed securities issued by GNMA and GSEs represent 98% of our investment securities portfolio. The most important element management relies on when assessing credit risk for U.S. Treasury and agency mortgage-backed securities is the guarantee of the Federal Government or one of its agencies. When applicable, we consider geography as a factor when managing our investments in securities issued by state and political subdivisions. We assess the credit risk for non-agency mortgage-backed securities and asset-backed securities based on senior to subordinated credit support levels and an analysis of the bond’s underlying collateral characteristics. As a secondary measure, the non-agency mortgage-backed securities consider ratings by NRSRO, but not solely relied upon, to determine the creditworthiness of the issuance.

Refer to Note 2 and Note 12 of our 2025 Form 10-K and the “Counterparty Credit Risk-Related Disclosures” section of this report for more information on our credit risk exposures related to investment securities and derivatives. Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Net Interest Income” in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K for average balances of our loans and leases and investment securities. The average credit risk exposure related to our OTC derivatives for the quarter ended December 31, 2025 was $691 million.

Refer to Note 17 of our 2025 Form 10-K for more information on the credit risk exposure related to our off-balance sheet commitments (including contractual commitments to extend credit and letters of credit). The average credit risk exposure associated with our off-balance sheet credit commitments and letters of credit for the quarter ended December 31, 2025 was $105 billion.

Counterparty Credit Risk-Related Disclosures

Counterparty exposure arises primarily from the OTC derivative transactions in our customer and institutional derivative portfolios. The amount of this exposure depends on the value of underlying market factors (e.g., interest and foreign exchange rates), which can be volatile and uncertain in nature. Counterparty exposure also arises (to a lesser extent) from our securities lending and borrowing activities, which includes entering into repurchase agreements.

The customer derivative portfolio consists of interest rate, foreign exchange and commodity derivative contracts transacted to meet the hedging and financing needs of our customers. We transact swap agreements and options agreements to effectively minimize our market risk associated with the customer derivative products. We commonly execute these customer trades concurrently with new loan transactions, with any business collateral received from a counterparty securing both the derivative and loan. Accordingly, the underwriting process for establishing customer derivative credit limits is equivalent to the process used for corporate loan exposure. We establish these limits based on potential future exposure using stochastic models developed by F.I.S., a third party risk management software solution provider. The models utilize Monte Carlo methods consistent with industry practice and are subject to risk governance for model risk management and validation. We manage the credit risk of our customer derivative positions by diversifying our positions among various counterparties and in certain cases, transferring the counterparty credit risk related to interest rate swaps to third parties using risk participation agreements. Refer to “Schedule HC-L Derivatives and Off-Balance-Sheet Items” in our December 31, 2025 FR Y-9C for the notional amounts of purchased and sold risk participation agreements. When measuring the fair value of our customer derivative portfolio for GAAP financial reporting purposes, we include a CVA that reflects the credit quality of the swap counterparty, as well as factors in our own credit quality. For more information on our valuation methodologies, refer to Note 18 of our 2025 Form 10-K.

Residential loan derivatives include loan commitments that allow residential mortgage customers to lock in the interest rate on a residential mortgage while the loan undergoes the underwriting process. We use forward sales contracts to protect the value of residential mortgage loans and loan commitments that we underwrite for future sale to investors in the secondary market. We also hedge the fair market value movements of certain MSRs using various interest rate derivative contracts.

CITIZENS FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.

December 31, 2025 Pillar 3 Regulatory Disclosures

The institutional derivative portfolio primarily consists of interest rate swap agreements used to hedge the interest rate risk associated with our investment securities, loans, and financing liabilities (e.g., borrowed funds, deposits, etc.). Institutional swaps and swaps executed to mitigate the market risk associated with our customer derivative products and residential loan derivatives include bilateral trades with dealers and cleared trades with central counterparties. These trades must comply with daily margin requirements where we may post and collect financial collateral based on pre-defined “thresholds”. Thresholds represent the amount of exposure that counterparties are willing to accept on an unsecured basis. We post and collect collateral only when the market value of any outstanding swaps exceeds that threshold. Changes in our own creditworthiness do not generally have an impact on the amount of collateral posted given zero thresholds have become the market convention or may otherwise be required by Prudential Banking Regulators’ margin rules (“Margin Rules”) in the case of variation margin. Bilateral trades with dealers are subject to counterparty credit limits that cover replacement costs and potential changes in market value based on a ten day close out period. We collect and post variation margin for swaps entered into with registered swap dealers and in certain cases with financial end users as defined in the Margin Rules. Bilateral trades with a registered swap dealer must comply with the initial margin rules for both the CFTC and the Prudential Banking Regulators, subject to their own pre-defined posting thresholds. Unlike daily margin, initial margin is required to be held and segregated at an independent third-party custodian negating the need for counterparty credit limits. Cleared trades with central counterparties are subject to counterparty credit limits for initial margin requirements where we post collateral, but where the collateral is operationally commingled with initial margin owed to other clients of the clearing broker.

Our repurchase agreements are typically short-term transactions (i.e., overnight), but they may be extended to longer terms-to-maturity (not to exceed 270 days). We fully collateralize such transactions and account for them as secured borrowings in our financial statements. We establish counterparty credit limits to monitor our over-collateralized position, which represents the difference between the market value of the collateral pledged and the amount we borrow. When permitted by GAAP, we offset short-term receivables with short-term payables associated with our reverse repurchase agreements.

On a daily basis we monitor counterparty credit exposures for counterparties with an established CSA, including initial and variation margin CSA, to ensure appropriately sized collateral levels to cover risk. We manage collateral received from third parties and held pursuant to the terms of the governing CSA agreement for the counterparty, in either a tri-party custodial, segregated or an omnibus account. We negotiate the collateral requirements on each established CSA and primarily include cash in the form of U.S. Dollars, U.S. Treasuries, and MBS of a certain credit quality.

Refer to Note 12 of our 2025 Form 10-K for fair value of our derivative transactions on both a gross and net basis. The net basis presented represents the impact of enforceable master netting agreements as well as collateral paid and received.

Refer to Note 2 of our 2025 Form 10-K for information on our repurchase agreements.

Credit Risk Mitigation

We limit our credit risk mitigation that is recognized for the purposes of reducing capital requirements to implicit and explicit credit guarantees provided by the U.S. Government. We do not use collateral as a source of credit risk mitigation for the purposes of reducing capital requirements. Table 13 below presents our total exposure covered by guarantees and the risk-weighted amounts associated with each exposure.

SECURITIZATION

A securitization exposure is a transaction in which the credit risk of the underlying exposure transfers to third parties and is separated into two or more tranches. The performance of a securitization depends upon the performance of the underlying exposures or reference assets, all or substantially all of which are financial exposures. We participate in the securitization market as an investor and a lender in traditional securitization exposures; however, not as an originator or sponsor. We invest in securitization exposures of third party issued non-agency MBS, collateralized loan obligations and other asset-backed securities. Other asset-backed securities are collateralized by loans that we sold to a third-party sponsored VIE and we provided financing to the purchaser for a portion of the sales price of the asset-backed securities. We also may act as a securitization lender by entering into asset-backed securitization loans with third party sponsored special purpose entities that are designed to meet client needs for long-term financing of assets or working capital. We calculate the regulatory capital requirement for securitization exposure in accordance with the U.S. Basel III Standardized approach. RWA for securitization exposures is determined using SSFA. The SSFA framework considers our seniority in the securitization structure and risk factors inherent in the underlying assets. For more information on our securities portfolio, refer to Note 2 of our 2025 Form 10-K.

We do not apply credit risk mitigation to our securitized exposures and do not have exposure to securitization guarantors. We do not have synthetic securitization exposure and all securitization exposures are held on our balance sheet.

Risk Management

We manage the risks related to securitization positions in accordance with the investment, credit, and interest rate risk management policies. Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Risk Management" in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K for more information on our credit risk and interest rate risk (i.e., non-trading risk) governance. For each securitization position, we perform due diligence on the credit worthiness of each position prior to entering into that position. Our due diligence procedures provide a comprehensive understanding of the features that would materially affect the performance of a securitization, and are commensurate with the complexity of each securitization position held.

EQUITIES (NON-TRADING)

We hold equity securities to fulfill requirements of membership and participation in U.S. banking and payments systems. CBNA holds stock in the FRB and the FHLB. Our equity holdings include fund and non-fund equities and immaterial amounts of stock. The non-fund equities use the simple risk-weight approach and primarily consist of investments in community projects in conjunction with our commitment to the communities in which we operate. These investments also fulfill specific requirements imposed by the CRA as implemented by the U.S. regulatory agencies. In addition to CRA investments, we invest in renewable energy projects such as wind and solar, providing benefits from returns generated by government incentives plus other tax attributes that come with ownership. We also have invested amounts in fund-related equity investments, consisting primarily of money market mutual fund investments, and separate account bank owned life insurance. The underlying assets of separate account bank owned life insurance consist primarily of treasuries, mortgaged-backed securities, and bonds. The fund-related equity investments use the full look-through approach to determine risk weight.

Our accounting policy for equity securities (i.e., “other investment securities”) is presented in Note 2 of our 2025 Form 10-K. We present methodologies for measuring the fair value of equity securities in Note 18 of our 2025 Form 10-K. The carrying value of our CRA investments are included in the other assets line in “Financial Statements - Consolidated Balance Sheets” in our 2025 Form 10-K. Separate account bank-owned life insurance is included in the bank-owned life insurance line within the “Financial Statements - Consolidated Balance Sheets” in Item 8 of our 2025 Form 10-K. Table 16 below presents our equity exposures and the risk-weighted amounts associated with each exposure.

MARKET RISK

Non-Trading Risk

Our non-trading banking activities expose us to market risk. This market risk is composed of interest rate risk, as we have no commodity risk and de minimis direct currency and equity risk. We also have market risk related to capital markets loan originations, as well as the valuation of our MSRs. Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Market Risk - Non-Trading Risk” in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K for more information on our exposure to interest rate risk. Refer to Note 12 of our 2025 Form 10-K for more information on our hedging policies and our processes for monitoring hedge effectiveness.

Trading Risk

We are exposed to market risk primarily through client facilitation activities from certain derivative and foreign exchange products as well as underwriting and market making activities. Market risk exposure arises from fluctuations in interest rates, basis spreads, volatility, foreign exchange rates, equity prices, and credit spreads across various financial instruments.

As of December 31, 2025, our market risk RWA was $621 million, reflecting general market rate/price risk and specific risk. We do not model our specific risk through the VaR based process and thus we calculate a specific risk add-on under a standardized measurement method. We do not calculate incremental risk or comprehensive risk, as we take a standardized specific risk add-on, and we do not participate in correlation trading related activities.

For further discussion related to market risk governance, risk measurements, VaR methodology and validation, and regulatory capital, refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Risk Management” in Item 7 of our 2025 Form 10-K.

APPENDIX 2 - FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any statement that does not describe historical or current facts is a forward-looking statement. These statements often include the words "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "estimates," "intends," "plans," "goals," "targets," "initiatives," "potentially," "probably," "projects," "outlook," "guidance" or similar expressions or future conditional verbs such as "may," "will," "likely," "should," "would," and "could."

Forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of management, and on information currently available to management. Our statements speak as of the date hereof, and we do not assume any obligation to update these statements or to update the reasons why actual results could differ from those contained in such statements in light of new information or future events. We caution you, therefore, against relying on any of these forward-looking statements. They are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. While there is no assurance that any list of risks and uncertainties or risk factors is complete, important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include the following, without limitation:

- Negative economic, business, and political conditions, including as a result of the interest rate environment, supply chain disruptions, tariffs, inflationary pressures, and labor shortages that adversely affect the general economy, housing prices, the job market, consumer confidence, and spending habits;
- The general state of the economy and employment, as well as general business and economic conditions, and changes in the competitive environment;
- Our capital and liquidity requirements under regulatory standards and our ability to generate capital and liquidity on favorable terms;
- The effect of changes in our credit ratings on our cost of funding, access to capital markets, ability to market our securities, and overall liquidity position;
- The effect of changes in the level of commercial and consumer deposits on our funding costs and net interest margin;
- Our ability to achieve our financial performance goals and execute on our strategic business initiatives, including the continued expansion of Private Bank and Private Wealth, and our aim to position us as a more innovative, modern, and customer-centric bank;
- The effects of geopolitical instability, including the wars in Ukraine and the Middle East, on economic and market conditions, inflationary pressures and the interest rate environment, commodity price and foreign exchange rate volatility, and heightened cybersecurity risks;
- Our ability to comply with heightened supervisory requirements and expectations as well as new or amended regulations;
- Liabilities and business restrictions resulting from litigation and regulatory investigations;
- The effect of changes in interest rates on our net interest income, net interest margin, mortgage originations, mortgage servicing rights, and mortgages held for sale;
- Changes in interest rates and market liquidity, as well as the magnitude of such changes, which may reduce interest margins, impact funding sources, and affect the ability to originate and distribute financial products in the primary and secondary markets;
- Financial services reform and other current, pending, or future legislation or regulation that could have a negative effect on our revenue and businesses;
- Environmental risks, such as physical or transition risks associated with climate change, and social and governance risks that could adversely affect our reputation, operations, business, and customers;
- A failure in, or breach of, our compliance with laws, as well as operational or security systems or infrastructure, or those of our third-party vendors or other service providers, including as a result of cyberattacks; and

- Management's ability to identify and manage these and other risks.

In addition to the above factors, we also caution that the actual amounts and timing of any future common stock dividends or share repurchases will be subject to various factors, including our capital position, financial performance, balance sheet growth, market conditions, and regulatory considerations, as well as any other factors that our Board of Directors deems relevant in making such a determination. Therefore, there can be no assurance that we will repurchase shares from, or pay any dividends to, holders of our common stock, or as to the amount of any such repurchases or dividends.

More information about factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements can be found under Item 1A "Risk Factors." of our 2025 Form 10-K.
